RAGTIME at Lincoln Center

RAGTIME is a sweeping musical adaptation of E.L. Doctorow's novel that follows three fictional families in pursuit of the American Dream at the dawn of the 20th Century: Black pianist Coalhouse Walker, Jr. and his beloved Sarah, Jewish immigrant Tateh and his little girl, and a wealthy white family led by matriarch Mother. All grasping for the same dream, if only they can hold on to it. RAGTIME weaves fictional narratives with real historical figures and events, creating a rich tapestry that blurs the line between personal struggle and national identity, making history feel both intimate and epic. Orchestra seats/7:00 PM show.

CHICAGO at Ambassador Theatre

Set in the legendary city during the roaring "jazz hot" 20s, Chicago tells the story of two rival vaudevillian murderesses locked up in Cook County Jail. Nightclub star Velma's serving time for killing her husband and sister after finding the two in bed together. Driven chorus girl Roxie's been tossed in the joint for bumping off the lover she's been cheating on her husband with. Not one to rest on her laurels, Velma enlists the help of prison matron Mama Morton and slickster lawyer Billy Flynn, who turn Velma's incarceration into a murder-of-the-week media frenzy, thus preparing the world for a splashy showbiz comeback. But Roxie's got some of her own tricks up her sleeve... Orchestra seats / 7:00 pm show.

Les Misérables: The Arena Concert Spectacular at Radio City

Les Misérables: The Arena Spectacular is a massive, globally touring concert production celebrating the musical's 40th anniversary, featuring a huge cast, a live orchestra of over 65, and spectacular new designs for large venues, blending concert intimacy with grand scale, with dates spanning the UK, Europe, Australia, Asia, and North America through 2026. It's a grand concert experience, not a traditional play with sets, using video screens (like for the runaway cart) and dynamic lighting, but offers an epic, emotional rendition of the iconic songs like "I Dreamed a Dream" and "One Day More". Orchestra 6 seats/7:30 PM show.
